6. CITY OF LIMA

LIMA - PERÚ

Lima, the vibrant capital of Peru, bathed by the Pacific Ocean is a treasure that captivates the senses of visitors with its fascinating mix of history, culture and flavors. With more than 2000 years of legacy, this city offers a journey back in time through cobbled streets and majestic colonial houses.

The iconic Plaza de Armas is the heart of Lima, where the Cathedral and Government Palace reflect centuries of evolution. Districts like Barranco and Miraflores bring the bohemian spirit, with art galleries and panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean.

However, it is the famous Peruvian gastronomy that really puts Lima on the world culinary map. Fusing indigenous, African, European and Asian influences, the city offers iconic dishes such as “ceviche” and “lomo saltado”. World-acclaimed restaurants (2 of them among the top 10 in the world) and markets filled with fresh ingredients invite you to feast on flavors.

Lima's cultural scene is buzzing with life, from traditional festivals to modern art and music events. The Larco Museum exhibits an impressive collection of pre-Columbian art, and celebrations such as the Lord of Miracles processions and Independence Day showcase the country's passion.

With a very pleasant climate for most of the year, Lima is a destination for all seasons. Beaches such as the Costa Verde invite relaxation and amazing sunsets. In addition, the city is surrounded by natural and archaeological wonders, such as Pachacamac and the Ballestas Islands.

Lima is constantly evolving, merging its rich heritage with a modern, cosmopolitan mindset. Whether for its history, its exquisite cuisine, its vibrant culture, its captivating landscapes and now the World Bowling, Lima offers an enriching experience that leaves an indelible mark on each visitor.

Welcome to Lima!!!
